THE CHOLERA WEDDING: A MAGICAL RITUAL TO END AN EPIDEMIC

SUNDAY 1 NOVEMBER

7.30PM

In the 19th century, a peculiar ritual emerged among East European Jews to stop an epidemic spreading: they married off their marginalised members in a cemetery. Join us as we unpick this bizarre phenomenon with Professor Natan Meir, a scholar of Jewish social, cultural and religious history. He'll examine the sources that illuminate this hidden corner of Jewish life. Hosted in partnership with the Lyons Learning Project.
